

Louisvillian of the Year

First bestowed in 1950, the AAF-Louisville's "Louisvillian of the Year" is the oldest award of its kind in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. This outstanding achievement is given to publicly recognize generous personal contributions made to the community in the areas of civic, educational or business progress in recent years. Selected by the previous recipients, AAF-Louisville is pleased to list those men and women who have earned this prestigious award.
