The rules, divisions and categories defined here serve as the official policy for the American Advertising Awards competition and replace all others from previous competitions. The name American Advertising Awards, ADDY and the trophy to which this name refers are protected by a registered trademark owned by the American Advertising Federation. The AAF competition rules, category format and the American Advertising Awards competition name should be used at all levels of the competition.

The American Advertising Awards is owned and operated by the American Advertising Federation. All rules and guidelines must be followed entirely by any AAF chapter or district hosting the preliminary stages of the competition. AMERICAN ADVERTISING AWARDS®, ADDY® and NATIONAL ADDY AWARDS® are service marks of the American Advertising Federation, registered with the US Trademark Office. All rights reserved.

about the awards

AMERICAN
ADVERTISING
AWARDS

The American Advertising Awards is the advertising industry's largest and most representative competition in the United States. The mission of the American Advertising Awards competition is to recognize and reward the creative spirit of excellence in the art of advertising.

Conducted annually by the American Advertising Federation (AAF), the local phase is the first of a three-tier, national competition. Concurrently, across the country, local entrants vie to win ADDY Awards—recognition as the very best in their markets. At the second tier, local ADDY winners compete with winners from other local chapters in one of 15 district competitions. District ADDY winners are then forwarded to the third tier, the national stage of the American Advertising Awards. Entry in your local Ad Chapter competition is the first step toward winning a national ADDY.

Entering the American Advertising Awards supports the entire advertising industry, because the AAF and its local and district affiliates use the proceeds to enhance advertising through programs such as public service, professional development, internships, advocacy groups, advertising education, and consumer awareness.

Selection of the most creative entries is conducted through a scoring process in which a panel of judges—comprised of accomplished advertising creative professionals—evaluates all creative dimensions of every entry. A Gold ADDY is recognition of the highest level of creative excellence and is judged to be superior. Entries that are also considered outstanding and worthy of recognition receive a Silver ADDY. The number of awards given in each category is determined by the judges, based on the relative quality of work in that category.

The American Advertising Awards Student Division is also a three-tier national competition, which is sponsored by the AAF. Occurring in conjunction with the professional competition, the Student Awards recognize and reward creative excellence by students. Information on entering the American Advertising Awards Student Division may be found at AmericanAdvertisingAwards.com.

about the competition

How to Enter

Visit AmericanAdvertisingAwards.com, or your local AAF Chapter website. You will be directed to the competition site to register as an entrant. Review the category list in this document or on these websites to find where your work should compete, and follow the simple drop-down menus to enter your information. Make sure you credit the members of your creative team, so that they will be recognized properly in press releases and other AAF winner publications. Trophies are personalized based on information submitted at time of entry. Please make sure all fields are accurate.

Submission of entries acknowledges the right of the AAF to use them for publication, exhibition and marketing of the American Advertising Awards competition and show.

Deadlines

Local deadline information is available from your local AAF Chapter. All Ad Chapter entry deadlines for this competition year will occur on or after January 1, 2024. After preparing your entries in the manner outlined in this guide, deliver the entries, before your local deadline, to the location indicated by your local Chapter. Since you must enter your local American Advertising Awards competition to be eligible for district and national judging, it is important that you do not miss this deadline.

Eligibility Requirements

- All work entered in the American Advertising Awards competition must have first appeared between January 1, and December 31, 2023.

- With the exceptions of Pro Bono Advertising and Advertising Industry Self Promotion categories, and student entries, work entered must have been the result of paid creative services and/or media placement in the normal course of business.
- Entries must be submitted in the CBSA, DMA or MSA where the work was created (as defined by Arbitron or Nielsen for your local market). If multiple Ad Chapters are in the same CBSA (Core-Based Statistical Area), DMA (Designated Market Area) or MSA (Metropolitan Statistical Area) the Ad Chapter located nearest to the entrant geographically will be the entry site.
- In the event there are entrants located in markets not served by a local American Advertising Awards-affiliated show, the acceptance, processing, judging, forwarding and fees of those entries will be decided by the governing body of the district in which the entrant is located. Additional geographic considerations are covered on page 6.
- For Student eligibility requirements refer to the Student American Advertising Awards Rules & Categories available at AmericanAdvertisingAwards.com.

“Real” Advertising

The expressed intent of the American Advertising Awards competition is to recognize and reward creative excellence in the legitimate everyday workplace of advertising. Occasionally, an entry is submitted that appears to have been created outside the conventional agency-to-client-to-media marketing structure, as if the entry was created solely for the purpose of winning an award or an account. This type of work is not accepted. Eligible entries must consist of placed media created in the aforementioned timeframe.

“New” Creative

To qualify as new creative, the copy must be completely different from that used in any previous ads. The same headline with different body copy does not qualify. Changing dates, locations, times, savings, etc., does not qualify. The illustration or photography can be the same, but the copy (thrust and content) must be new. Some ads present little or no copy. In the instance of no copy (other than time, location, and other basic information data), an ad with a previously used illustration does not qualify. If questionable, the final decision rests with the local, district and ultimately the National American Advertising Awards Committee.

Copyright infringement and/or plagiarism (be it intentional or unintentional) will result in the disqualification and, if applicable, removal of awards from any entry deemed in violation. All entry fees will be forfeited.

Documentation

Should a question arise relative to the eligibility or legitimacy of any entry the entrant agrees by his/her signature on the entry form to furnish the necessary documentation for review by the National American Advertising Awards Committee. Failure to do so can be grounds for disqualification without refund of entry fees. Decisions on eligibility made by the National American Advertising Awards Committee are final.

Entry Fees

Local entry fee information is available on the competition entry website, or from your local AAF Chapter. Since there is often a substantial savings in entry fees for AAF members, you should consider joining your local Chapter. Some of the benefits of membership include: personal and professional development through regular meetings and workshops; networking opportunities; a voice in legislative issues; and member discounts on business related services.

All Entries Must

- Meet all eligibility and deadline requirements.
- Be entered in the correct category and be correctly identified.
- Conform to defined submission requirements.
- Conform to all copyright laws.

Invoice/Manifest Form

After filling out the entry forms, you will be required to sign an Invoice/Manifest Form, listing all of your entries. This form states that by signing below you:

1. Verify that the above information is accurate.
2. Acknowledge that proper rights were obtained for use of any elements of the entry that were not original.

3. Agree to submit documentation deemed necessary for review.
4. Release the entry for Internet, broadcast and/or print (allow reuse of material).
5. Verify that the entry was created within the local MSA of the competition.

Corporate Social Responsibility

Corporate Social Responsibility advertising has a goal for raising the public's awareness of social, ethical and/or environmental issues which includes branding that leads to a positively enhanced corporate image.

All Corporate Social Responsibility advertising must be entered in these categories and does not qualify in any other. Individual elements of Corporate Social Responsibility advertising may be entered into the Elements of Advertising categories for judging, but note there is no specific Corporate Social Responsibility category.

Public Service

Public Service Advertising has as its goal the improvement of the public's health, education, and or/welfare. This work may be paid or pro bono.

All Public Service advertising must be entered in these categories and does not qualify in any other. Individual elements may be entered into Elements of Advertising categories. Please note: Pro bono work and elements are not eligible for Best of Show consideration.

Advertising Industry Self-Promotion

All advertising and special event materials created to promote advertising agencies, media outlets, production companies, advertising suppliers, freelancers, and advertising chapters must be entered in these categories. Entries submitted in advertising self-promotion are not eligible in other categories. However, individual components are eligible for entry in the elements of advertising categories. Please note: Advertising Industry Self-Promotion work is NOT eligible for Best of Show Consideration.

Entry Submission

Requirement of physical entry submissions is at the discretion of the local AAF Chapter.

Physical entries must be placed inside an appropriately-sized envelope. The national American Advertising Awards Committee recommends transparent, plastic envelopes found in most office supply stores and catalogs. Manila envelopes may also be used. Please consult with your local chapter for physical entries as specifications may vary. Mounted entries are not encouraged.

If a transparent plastic envelope is used, insert two copies of the entry form securely inside the envelope behind the physical entry. The entry (creative work) should be facing or readable from one side and the entry form facing or readable from the other. Firmly affix the entry number to the BACK of every piece in the entry (use removable entry number tabs from the bottom of printable entry form).

If a manila envelope is used, spray-mount the entire entry form and attach to the front of the envelope. Insert a second copy of the entry form inside the envelope. Also firmly affix the entry number to the BACK of every piece in the entry (use removable entry number tabs from the bottom of printable entry form).

If a three-dimensional (3-D) item is small enough, it should be placed inside an envelope, as described above. The entry number label should be securely attached to the bottom of the entry. Insert two copies of the entry form inside the envelope. (If the entry is likely to tear the envelope when removing and replacing it, choose the method listed below.)

When a three-dimensional (3D) item is oversized and too large to fit inside an envelope, enclose the item inside an appropriately-sized box. Secure the entry number to the top of the box in the upper right-hand corner. An entry number label should be affixed to the bottom of the piece for identifying. Spray-mount the entry form to the bottom of the box and place a second copy of the entry form inside the box.

Campaign entries may be handled in the same manner as above, placing the campaign inside an appropriately sized envelope. Firmly affix the entry number to the BACK of every piece in the entry (use removable entry number tabs from the bottom of printable entry form). Indicate on each label “1 of 2” or “2 of 2,” etc. Include an extra copy of the entry form inside the envelope.

All components of Campaign and Integrated Campaign entries must be entered together in an appropriately sized envelope whenever possible. Firmly affix the entry number to the BACK of every piece in the entry (use removable entry number tabs from the bottom of printable entry form). Label each component with an entry number and include the total components for each campaign, (1 of 10, 2 of 10, 3 of 10, etc.).

Entry Identification

Detach the category and entry number labels from the printable entry form generated when you submitted your entry information online. The entry number must be firmly affixed in the upper right corner on the back of all pieces which are envelopes. In clear plastic or transparent envelopes, place two copies of the entire entry form into the envelope. Label each component of an Integrated Campaign in a similar fashion. No information identifying the entrant should appear on the face of an entry, or within the title of video slates or online URLs for digital submissions.

Submission of entries acknowledges the right of the AAF to use them for publication, exhibition and marketing of the American Advertising Awards competition and show.

Campaign Entries

A “Single-Medium Campaign” is no less than two and no more than four total pieces in the entry.

An “Integrated Campaign” is defined as a campaign or series of ads, commercials or executions that utilize more than one medium. The American Advertising Awards allows entries in all Integrated Campaign categories to submit up to ten executions for judging. Integrated Campaign entries may be accompanied by a written or digital (video) summary not to exceed 250 words (written) or 3 minutes (digital). Digital summaries must be submitted by uploading the video file during the online entry process.

Failure to adhere to these limitations may result in a portion or all of the noncompliant entry to be removed from judging.

Submission of Digital Entries

Digital entries in the Professional Division of the American Advertising Awards are described as follows:

- Entries in all Online/Interactive categories
- Entries in all Film, Video & Sound categories
- Entries in select Elements of Advertising categories

Entry submission in these categories may be made entirely online, including submission of creative assets either via digital file uploads, JPEG screenshots (for Social Media) or submission of URLs for judging (carefully follow the submission instructions during the online entry process). Completion of the entry process, for only these categories, requires only the online portion of the process—no physical work samples or entry forms are required for submission. However, for all other categories, a physical entry form and physical samples of the creative work suitable for judging must be submitted as part of the entry.

Online/Interactive Advertising

For Websites and all Online/Interactive entries, submit the URL addresses. For multiple URLs in a campaign category entry, create a webpage that contains each of the individual links and provide the single URL to your newly created page (i.e. http://www.somedomain.com/award_entries.html). Do not submit a URL that leads directly to a SWF file.

Judging of online entries will be done online, using the URL whenever possible. URLs should not require any username or password for access. In cases where this already exists, the entrant should create an independent URL. URLs, banners and menus must not contain any references to the entrant.

Submission of Entries

Note: Judging may be hosted virtually. Please check with your local chapter to verify requirements of physical entries.

Physical submissions are REQUIRED for all entries in the following divisions: Sales & Marketing, Print Advertising, Out-of-Home & Ambient Media, Cross Platform categories 051-056 of Elements of Advertising. This includes submission of a physical copy of the creative work—suitable for in-person judging and two printed copies of the entry form. Failure to comply with these guidelines could result in disqualification. Entries and entry fees should be sent to the address indicated by your local Club competition. All entries become the property of your local Club, district, or the AAF and will not be returned. Do NOT send original or irreplaceable artwork. It will NOT be returned.

Forwarding of Winners

Only work that has won a Gold ADDY or a Silver ADDY in a local Ad Chapter competition will be eligible for entry into the District competition. Only work that has won a Gold ADDY or a Silver ADDY in a district competition will be eligible for entry into the National American Advertising Awards competition.

Auto-Forwarding

If your entry wins a Gold ADDY at the local chapter competition, it will be automatically forwarded to the district competition with fees paid by the local chapter. Should the entry win Gold again at the district level, it will be forwarded to the national competition with fees paid by the district.

If your entry is awarded a Silver ADDY at the local or district level, you have won the right to compete at the next level of competition and may choose to pay the applicable entry fee in order to be forwarded. You will be contacted with information regarding your entries that qualify to be forwarded to the next level of competition, including entry fees, due dates and how to submit payment.

The rules, divisions and categories defined here serve as the official policy for the American Advertising Awards competition and replace all others from previous competitions. The name American Advertising Awards, ADDY and the trophy to which this name refers are protected by a registered trademark owned by the American Advertising Federation. The AAF competition rules, category format and the American Advertising Awards competition name should be used at all levels of the competition.

Judging Procedures

Judging will be conducted in accordance with the guidelines found on the AAF website. Decisions of judges and the National American Advertising Awards Committee, including eligibility, qualifications and appropriate category placements, are final.

Geographic Considerations

Entries may be entered into only one local American Advertising Awards competition, which is determined by the location of the agency or company that created the work. In addition, the piece MUST be entered under the Geographic Considerations of the entrant. In Elements of Advertising, entries may only be entered in the CBSA (Core-Based Statistical Area), DMA (Designated Market Area) or MSA (Metropolitan Statistical Area) in which it was created by the original creator of the work, not the agency or company that commissioned the work. If an affiliated competition does not exist in the CBSA, DMA or MSA, the district will direct the entrant to the nearest affiliated competition. (Although not recommended, the entrant, if other than the agency/creator, may choose to enter the work on behalf of the creator (examples include, but are not limited to: photographers, illustrators, printers, production companies or clients). In this case, the entrant's address will determine into which local show the work is entered. It is important, however, that the parties communicate to ensure the work is entered and eligible in only one market. Should a conflict arise and work is entered without knowledge in two markets, the National American Advertising Awards Committee defers to the rights of the creator in all cases.)

Agencies/companies that have adopted a “remote-first” model should enter work into the competition where the agency/ company is registered.

Special Awards

Work entered in the Advertising Industry Self-Promotion or work done pro bono is not eligible for Best of Show consideration. The National American Advertising Awards Committee suggests the creation of local, district and national Special Judges Awards to recognize outstanding achievement in pro bono advertising.

Branded Content & Entertainment

Branded content is original entertainment content that is funded or produced by an advertiser. It showcases a brand’s value without being a direct promotional pitch. It drives engagement, increases brand awareness, and improves brand loyalty by generating positive brand perceptions without overtly mentioning anything about the brand or the product. Sales videos or product brochures are not branded content.

014 Branded Content & Entertainment—Any Print Medium

Any branded content and/or branded entertainment placed or appearing in print media out-of-home & ambient media

NOTE: For the 2023-24 AAF-Louisville competition - physical entry submissions are not required. Categories 018-020 are allowed 3-5 digital images and one optional video upload.

Ambient Media

015 Guerrilla Marketing

Formerly known as a form of “non-traditional advertising” guerrilla marketing is an unconventional way of performing advertising and/or promotional activities. Guerrilla Marketing entries must be accompanied by proof of usage. Entries in this category should be accompanied by a written or digital (video) summary not to exceed 250 words (written) or 3 minutes (video). Digital summaries must be submitted by uploading the video file via the American Advertising Awards online entry software.

Installations

Design and build-out of temporary or permanent branded environment. Examples might include kiosk, art exhibition, trade show exhibit or retail store. Entries in this category may be accompanied by a written or digital (video) summary not to exceed 250 words (written) or 3 minutes (video). Digital summaries must be submitted by uploading the video file via the American Advertising Awards online entry software.

016A Single Installation

016B Multiple Installations

2–4 pieces may be submitted from work that qualifies in category 016A.

Events

Event execution (not architecture—see Installation). Entries in this category may be accompanied by a written or digital (video) summary not to exceed 250 words (written) or 3 minutes (video). Digital summaries must be submitted by uploading the video file via the American Advertising Awards online entry software.

017A Single Event

017B Multiple Events

2–4 pieces may be submitted from work that qualifies in category 017A.

The outdoor display of advertising messages, notices, or events, commonly associated with standardized wooden or metal structures, that are delivered to mass (outdoor) audiences on sidewalks, streets, roadways, mass transit, airlines, etc.

019A Single Board

019B Multiple Boards

2-4 boards combining to communicate one message or advertisement.

019C Animated/Video Boards

019D Outdoor Board Campaign

2-4 pieces may be submitted from work that qualifies in categories 019A-019C.

020A Large Venue—Single

Any signage, animated or static placed in stadiums and arenas. Examples could include branded scoreboard animations, branded games, sponsor signage, etc.

020B Out-Of-Home Campaign

2-4 pieces may be submitted from work that qualifies in categories 020A.

online/interactive

NOTE: Entries for categories within the Online/Interactive division do not require physical submission. Judging of these entries will be done online, using the digital content provided via URL or by JPEG screenshots during the online entry process.

Websites

Websites

021A Consumer

Any website created primarily for consumer use.

021B B-to-B

Any website created primarily for business-to-business commerce.

021C Microsites

Any web page or series of pages that are a part of a larger website but intended to feature specialized information. Although a microsite may have a unique message or purpose, it should support the overall parent website. Does not include animated movies or intros, which should be entered in Elements of Advertising. When entering a microsite, indicate the direct URL of the microsite, not the main site URL of which the micro is a part.

Social Media

Social Media

022A Single Execution

Single creative execution of brand advertising, marketing or promotion that appeared in social media. The same execution may have appeared on one or multiple platforms or in carousel, but only one entry is required.

022B Campaign

Creative executions of brand advertising, marketing and/or promotion across social media. The campaign may have appeared on one or multiple platforms. 2–4 pieces may be submitted from work that qualifies in category 022A.

Apps, Games, Virtual Reality

Apps, Games, Virtual Reality

Apps must advertise a product or service. Apps and Virtual Reality entries will be judged using a digital (video) summary of 3 minutes or less, which must be digitally uploaded by the entrant (not via URL). This summary should describe and demonstrate the design and functionality of the entry as well as the most important user benefits and attributes of the entry. Judges will not be given access to the app itself or headsets for virtual judging.

023A Mobile App

Interactive mobile apps for tablets, smartphones, and wearable devices.

023B Website Based App

Interactive apps for desktop and laptop-based web browsers.

Audio/Radio Advertising

Audio/Radio advertising is defined as commercial audio (only) messages conveyed to the prospective/target consumer public by the seller of a product or service via mass media transmission.

Commercial messages which appear on digital streaming or satellite radio services such as Pandora, Spotify or SiriusXM should be entered in the Regional/National Radio categories.

Within the audio/radio category, commercials aired on stations in more than one market or “metro” (even if placed on only one station in each of two “metros”) do not qualify as “local.” Any time a commercial extends past one “metro” (two or more), it is defined as regional/national and must be entered accordingly. 2–4 commercials for the same client, with a common theme that are placed in one market only (no more than one “metro”) are considered a campaign. If placed in two different markets, they do not qualify as a local campaign.

Audio/Radio Advertising—Local

A local audio/radio commercial is one that is broadcast on the station(s) of one market (no more than one “metro”). Radio commercials broadcast on stations in more than one “metro” (even if placed on only one station in each of two “metros”) do not qualify as “local.”

local only

NOTE: Winners in these categories are only eligible to win at the local level. There will be one winner selected for both The One That Got Away and the Culturally Legit awards.

The One that Got Away

Genuine work that was created with the intention of actually being produced but was not, for whatever reason. To be entered in this category the work must have been presented to a client, department head, etc. When you enter this category and sign your entry form, you're certifying this is true. Entries can be campaigns, print ads, a website, radio spot, etc. This is a "local" award and winning work will not be forwarded to the district or national level of the American Advertising Awards.

COST: Fee is only $25 per entry and must be entered through the online entry software on the AAF-Louisville website. Category: LOCAL ONLY, with the subcategory The One That Got Away. Where asked when work first appeared, please indicate date it was created.

Culturally Legit

This local-only award will be given to one entry that demonstrates a strong understanding of diversity in the widest spectrum of the word diversity and inclusion. First and foremost, the winner must be an original and innovative idea at its core and directed at its audience with a clear, creative message. The selected entry must contain a true degree of authenticity to the receiving audience for which it is intended and identify with a "real world" relevance beyond stereotypes. The work must exhibit a strong sense of belief in the power of creativity to create change and be a force for good; belief in the brands and business's crucial role of in creating a better, fairer, more sustainable world. Overall, the work must add to the depiction of holistic communities that genuinely perceive today's dynamic and multidimensional society.

New: The Culturally Legit Award no longer requires a separate submission in the entry software. All work submitted in any category will be eligible for this award. The judges will select the winner from the entire competition, based on the outlined criteria above.
