

Betty Stoner Award

The Betty Stoner Award replaced the one-year member service awards in June 2000, which were given to any number of individuals who performed extraordinary volunteer work for the Advertising Federation of Louisville in the immediate club year. The Betty Stoner Award is named after the first recipient, Betty Stoner, an AdFed Life Member and volunteer, and was first given at the AdFed Annual Meeting on June 16, 2000. This annual award recognizes overall outstanding volunteerism to the club and its endeavors, and is presented at the club's annual meeting.
